

Product Debossed Printed Wristbands

Debossed printed wristbands are perfect when you want to add both texture and colored text to your wristbands. These wristbands are perfect for all of your wristband needs, for anything from an awareness campaign to a fun fashion statement!

A mold is made in the shape of a wristband and inclusions are added to match your approved design and/or text. Your chosen color(s) are then poured into the mold and given time to cure. Once the curing process is complete the wristband is removed from the mold the recessed areas of text and/or designs are filled with environmentally friendly lead free paint that is guaranteed to last. Once this process is complete the wristbands are individually inspected for quality and accuracy before being packaged for shipment.
